

Anesthesia

Davide Cattano, M.D., Ph.D.*

SUCH as a forgotten sign,
I am standing by you,
I can see you,
Deep in your most intimate
Desperate reconciliation,
Sweet of honey,
Grace of amber and spices.
I am letting you go now,
Abandoning the last memory,
Falling in space and time,
A sharp and warm feeling,
Lost forever in the mist,
Floating restless the mind,
That is not yours but mine.
